

FORWARD
with Faith and Fortitude
1980

*There are so many things
in my heart that I want to say to you.
I cannot say them.
There is something cold
in words while there is nothing cold in me.
But you understand.
You see me as no one else sees me.
We both trust silence.*

Bro. Charles Imhoff, S.M.
1886-1979

A life begins, a life ends — or rather continues more fully. Printed on Bro. Imhoff's funeral memorial card were the words: "Christ is the living stone, rejected by men, but chosen by God. May you be living stones, making a spiritual house." (1 Peter, 2: 4, 5). Strangely, the thing that most impressed me about Bro. Imhoff was that he was a scientist, a collector of stones.

When I came to Japan eight years ago, Bro. Imhoff was recovering from the removal of stones from his body. Although Brother remained active on the playground, he still suffered from stomach upsets on occasion, caused by stones. January 1978 found Brother in Kameda Hospital, being treated for a complication of ailments. After a month, he came home, and slowly recovered his full strength. Day by day I read to him Sealed Orders by Agnes Sanford, daughter of missionaries in China. He was able to fill in all kinds of historical detail. Always alert, a solid stone.

A month later, Bro. Imhoff was taken to the hospital once more with a variety of ills. He made up his mind to walk no more. His will could not be changed. Taken later to St. Joseph Hospital in Yokosuka, he admitted, "The end is near." On April 12, 1979 I went to visit him, found him unconscious, attended him as he died, and brought him back to his beloved S.J.C. He was the twenty-first Marianist to have his name carved in stone in the Foreign Cemetery.

But why all this talk of stones? To me, Bro. Imhoff was a stone — weighty, unchanging; set, but not frozen. Before going to the hospital he took several Brothers into his room to show them his 70th Jubilee blessing from the Pope, and a box of rare stones, including gold nuggets and amethyst. Special things chosen, as he was chosen by God.

Bro. Imhoff was not cold nor frozen. In his illness I would hold him in my arms; he did not resist the touch of affection and healing. Once I went through a long rambling prayer in which I asked pardon and healing for all hurts of his whole life. As the prayer concluded he said, "Don't you be discouraged." In a confusing world we too can strive to be spiritual, living stones, rocks of strength, stones of intrinsic worth and beauty. Let's, in Bro. Imhoff's honor, let's build a spiritual house.

Francis Grisez, S.M.

The Graduates

What is freedom? Freedom is the right to choose: the right to create for yourself the alternatives of choice. Without the possibility of choice and the exercise of choice a man is not a man but a member, an instrument, a thing.

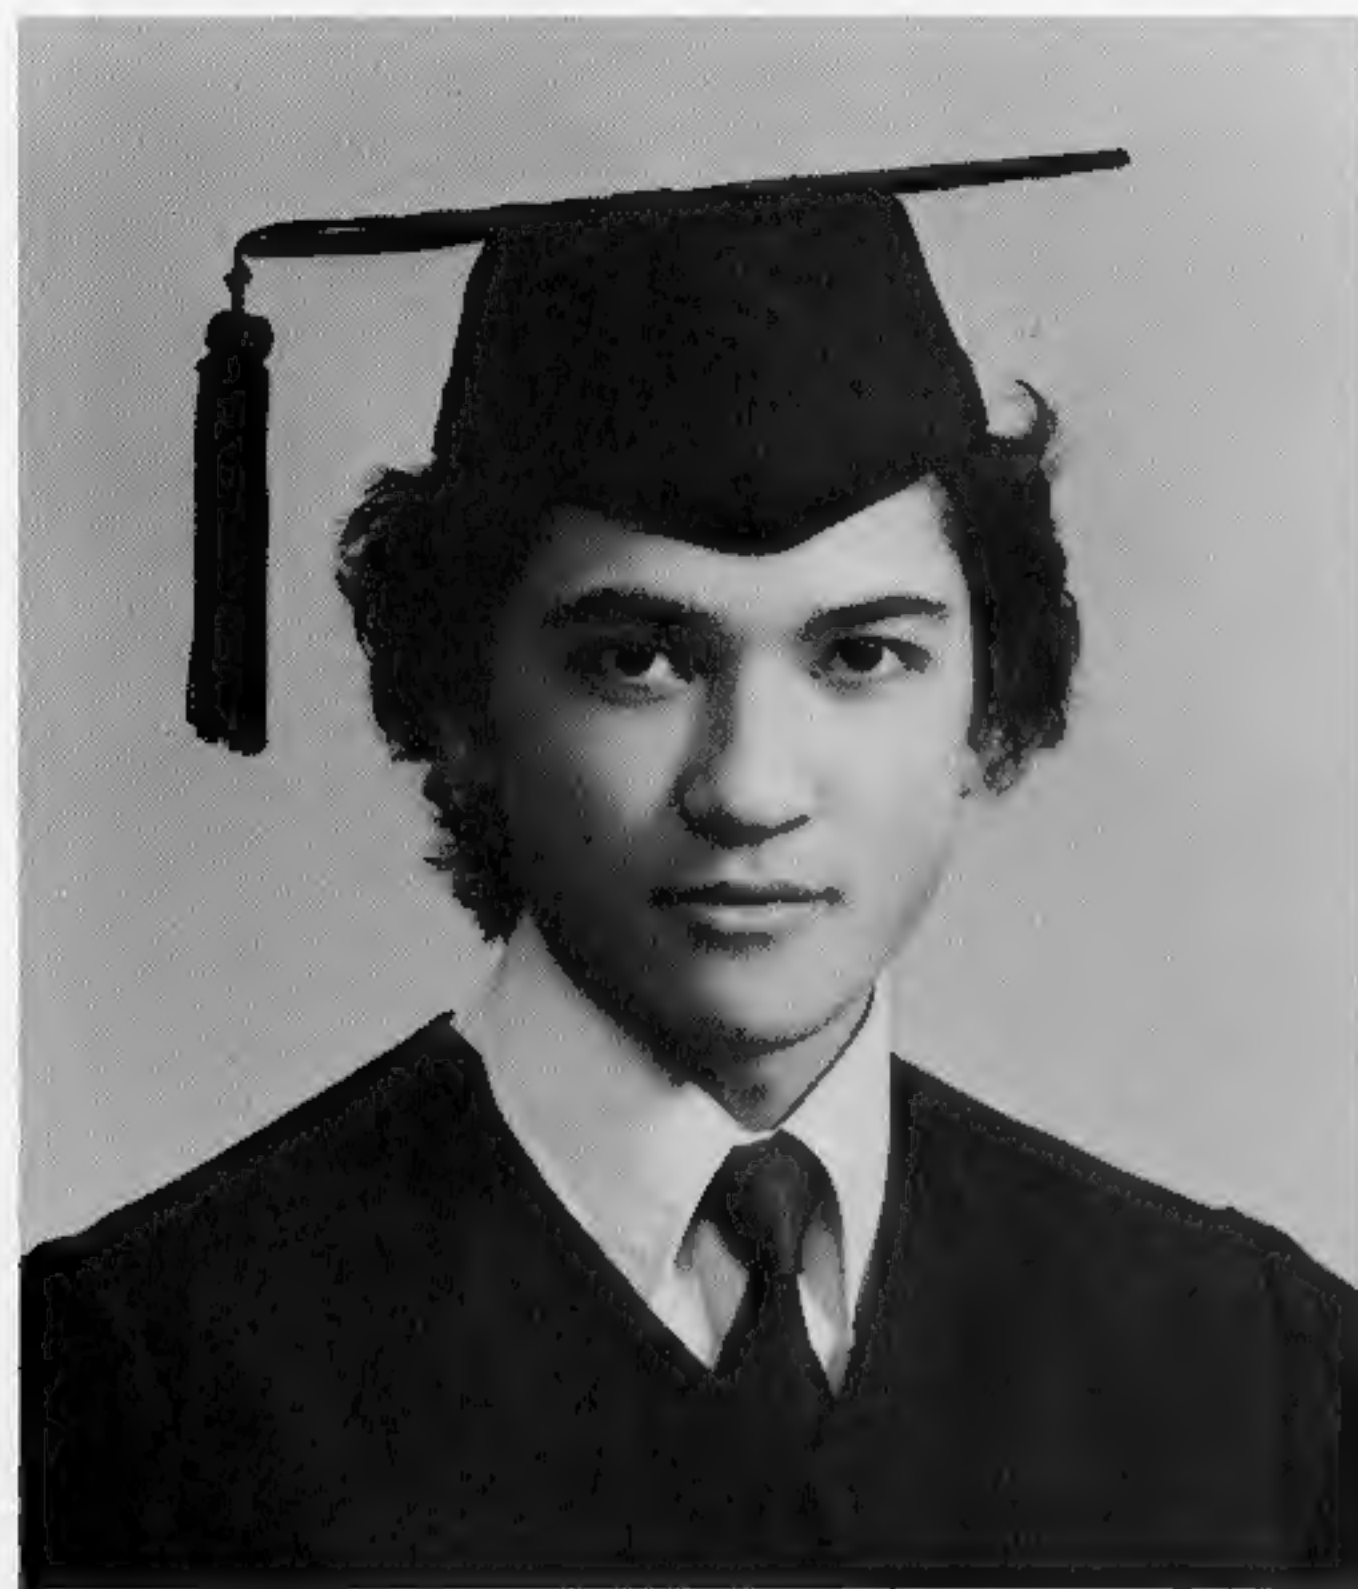

Archibald MacLeish

I opened my eyes. The early morning sunshine reflected from the clock—8 o'clock. Well, that means there are only twenty minutes left before school starts! Theoretically, that means that I would have to change into my uniform in 3 seconds, run to the station at 50km/hr, take a train (preferably the express), get off at Ishikawa-cho, run through Motomachi, climb up the stairs ten at a time, dash through the park, fly into the classroom and yell, "Father, I'm here!!" before he signs that attendance slip — and even after that there would be more than half a dozen classes waiting for me ... I turned pale and looked at the clock. Time ... 8:05. Date ... May 17th. Day ... Saturday. Day ... SATURDAY! Slowly, I closed my eyes. The bed was still very warm.

 Comment: Between the iron gates of fate,
 The seeds of time were sown;
 Watered by the deeds of those
 Who know and who are known,
 Knowledge is a deadly friend
 If no one sets the rules.
 The fate of all mankind I see
 Is in the hand of fools.

Friend and Guide

Dear Father Gerber,

At last, the ordeal is over. It was hard to realize that these days were numbered, in the midst of your personal methods, clouded with an acute acumen, just as it was hard to realize that beneath those kind and understanding eyes, there lies the yearning for nefarious gambling.

Seriously, without sour plums, this year could not have been possible, without the help and priceless guidance of yours, our homeroom teacher. And more important, your disposition, your humility, your philosophy, and your sense of justice, tempered with mercy, have served as a constant example for us in seeking that "Heart of Gold" and "Peace of Mind." In ourselves, and in others, will forever stay in our hearts and minds, the highest respect for you, Father. Perhaps the most important thing is your indefatigable love for people emanating in worth and friendship and good relations.

With this, we will part, and start a new phase of life, but your noble mark will stay with us.

Thank you,
 The Class of 1980

Dear Class of 1980,

All you missed was the halo, and rightly so because it will take a long time for that to be made. Thank you! for your very kind sentiments of appreciation. One of the happiest achievements of a teacher is to know that he has been an instrument for good with his students and that he helped them to gain further stepping stones towards that "Goal". Who made us for Himself and without Whom our hearts will never rest until they rest in Him, as Augustine tells us.

And that this is not all one-sided, I want to congratulate and thank all of you for the great spirit you showed in your studies, activities, cooperation, conduct and especially as a team. Truly, You, the Class of '80, have been outstanding. Your Teachers join me in that compliment. You are a true example of the "Forward" spirit of your Alma Mater. THANKS! again, and WELCOME! among the Alumni of St. Joseph College.

School Administration

Bro. McKee: Chief Director

General policies and major decisions regarding St. Joseph College are made by the Board of Directors. When the school was officially incorporated as a "Gakko Hojin" in 1956 it was stipulated in the articles of incorporation that all Directors are to be Marianists. Present members of the Board are Chief Director Bro. Donald McKee (Principal) and Directors: Fr. James Mueller (Superior of Yokohama Marianists), Bro. John O'Donnell (Business Manager), Fr. Francis Tomiki (Provincial Superior of Marianists in Japan), Bro. Joseph Wasy (Vice Principal and Principal of the Grade School). In 1975 a Board of Advisors was chosen to assist the Directors in gathering information and discussing school and community situations so that the Directors could make more informed decisions. The Board of Advisors meets with the Directors three or four times a year. Present members are: Mr. Charles P.S. Boyd (alumnus and past President of Warner Brothers in Japan), Mr. Tim McLaughlin (faculty representative), Mr. Masataka Usami (parent and Nissan executive), Mr. Yoshiharu Yamamoto (alumnus and President of Yamamoto Shoji K.K.), and Mr. Johnny Zee (alumnus and director of Zee Enterprises).

The Mothers Club of 1979-1980 achieved two goals: provided money for school funds and for Audio-Visual Aids for Santos Center. The Club had its Christmas Dinner Dance and Raffle at Hotel Yokohama for the first time on December 8, 1979. The Mothers Club donated 3.5 million yen to the school. Special thanks to Mrs. Shizuka Rinoie and Mrs. Yukiko Hirasawa, Officers and Homeroom Mothers and Assistant Advisor, Mrs. Ryoko Ishii for the long hours and untiring efforts in preparing for this annual event. The Mothers also assisted in the Bingo Food Fair which turned out to be the best ever at St. Joseph College, thanks to the donation of a car by Mrs. Sachi Kido of Grade 2.

The St. Joseph College Alumni Association is made up of alumni, alumnae and friends who have been associated with the school. Its purposes are mainly three: to foster mutual bonds of friendship and good fellowship among SJC former students and friends by annual meetings and by social and other activities; to enable the faculty to keep in contact with former students in whose spiritual and material welfare they have a deep and lasting interest; and to establish bonds of friendship and interest between the former students and present students of SJC, and to enable the former students to assist especially the graduating class in their careers and employments. For the last twenty-five years, the main event of the Association has been the annual dinner-dance which because of its growing proportions has had to be held in Tokyo hotels with close to 450 in attendance. All the proceeds of the dinner-dances go towards the Alumni Scholarship Fund (in existence since 1960) to help worthy students who need assistance in covering tuition and other expenses.

Moderator: Mr. Alff

This year, 1979-1980, saw no lack of activity on the part of the High School Student Council. It functioned very well indeed as the clearing house for ideas and opinions of the classes as well as the organizing body for a myriad of programs including the dances, an excursion, and a bonfire.

This year saw the reintroduction of the student badge at Saint Joseph's. As a symbol it reflects the growing pride all of us have in our school.

The officers and members have left us with ideas for future projects as well as with a respect for the fine work they have done.

A school should not be a preparation for life. A school should be life.
Elbert Hubbard

Social

Young people have their own imagination. Through this imagination, they create their own world. It could be a mirage, or it could be a dream, but still, they endeavor to search for this dream. Now here we are — "28" groovy individuals making this dream come true.

Welfare

I am so glad that I can say that both music fairs were successful. I had lots of help from my committee and I would like to thank everyone who helped to make these fairs the successes that they were. My only dream is to someday come back to SJC and see a music fair in which every last seat is filled.

Chairman: Ryosei Kaneko

Sports

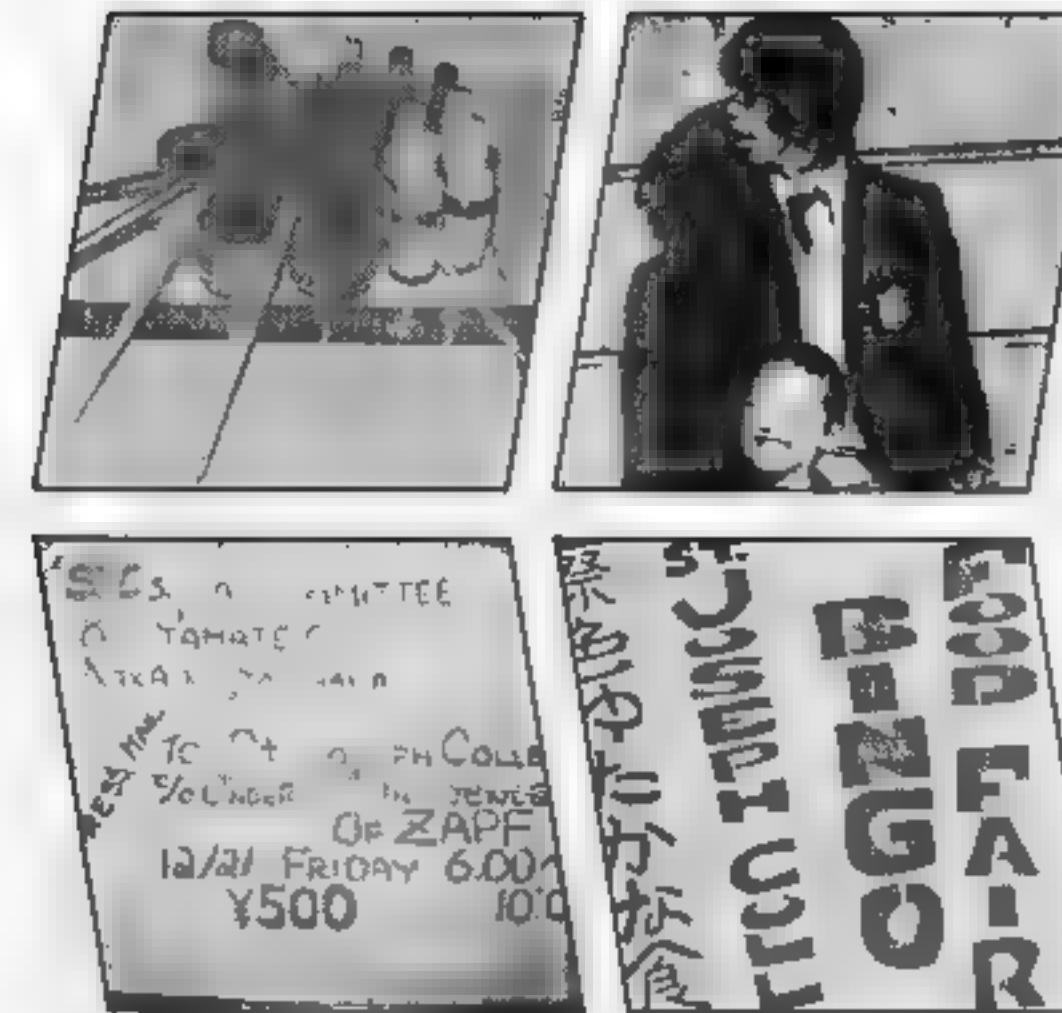

The Sports Committee is one of the most vital centers of school life, especially this year, for they hold the intramurals. One wonders in what other human drama, of momentous conflict, is there the kicking, the pushing, the shoving, the screaming, the yelling, the falling, and the groaning followed by amicable handshakes, smiles, harmony, and peace. This is also true of the excursion to the Cycle Sports Center. "Blessed are the Peacemakers!"

The school year started off with a series of fire crackers planted under the feet of the moderator — each little explosion announcing the withdrawal of a former member — ostensibly — and the grounds of concentrating on academic achievement in preference to pursuing histrionic excellence. A few, however, remained loyal to the activity which the English proclaimed to be capable of engendering the catharsis indispensable to the normal function of the human psyche, and the moderator was thus able to discern the wheat among the chaff that formerly cluttered the club.

Grade School

7th Grade

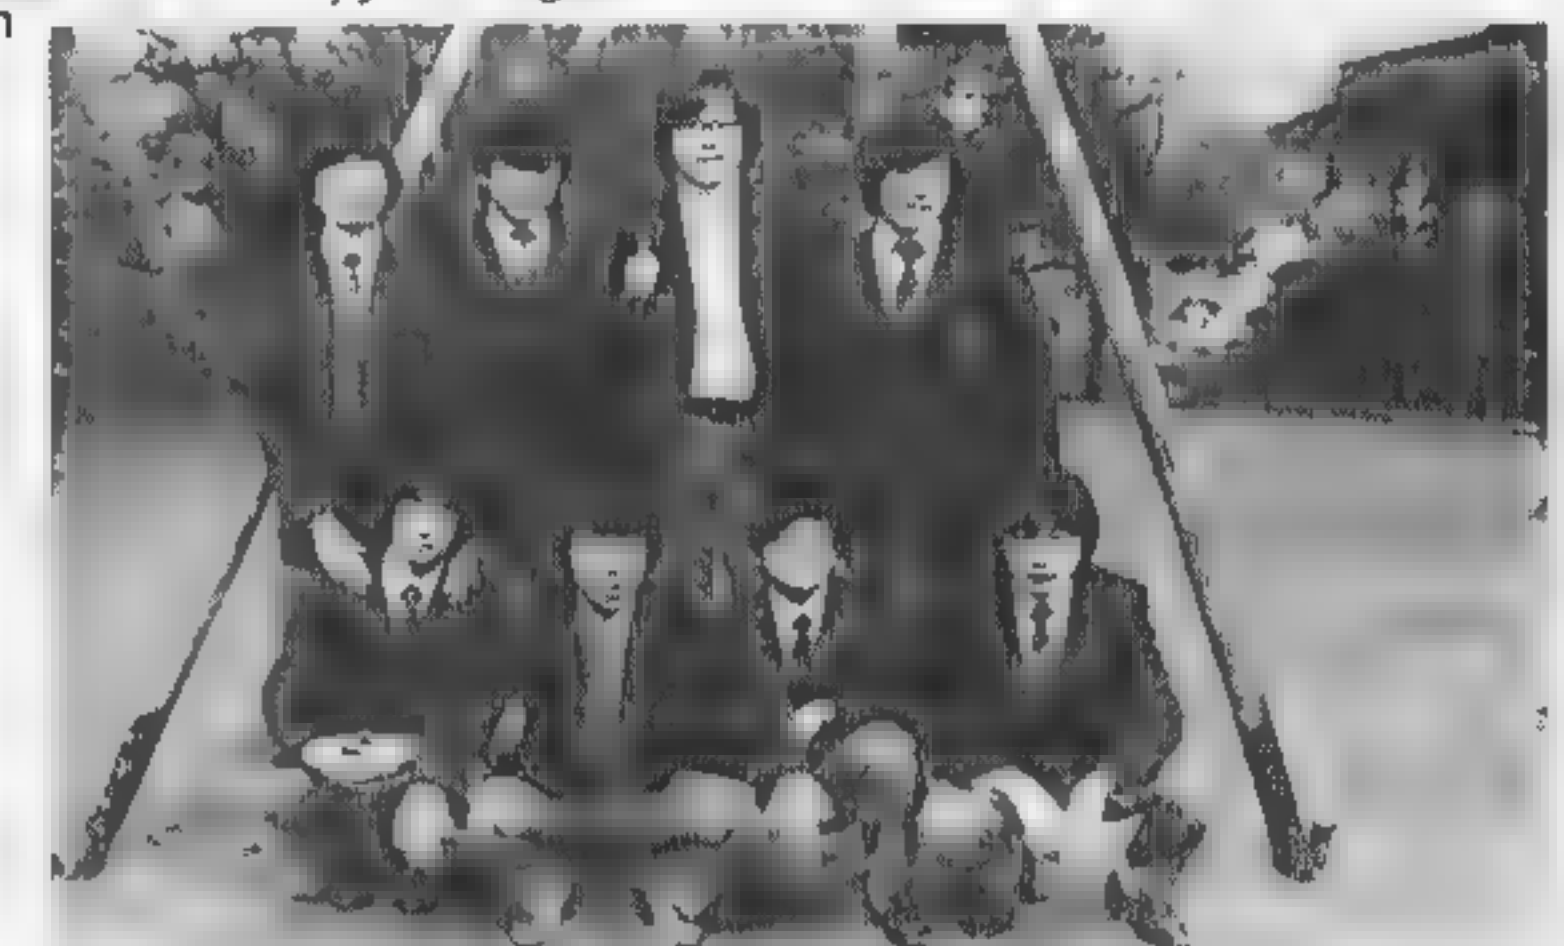

The Seventh Grade is generally friendly and we unite well with the upper grades. We all have unique personalities: humorous, serious, sensitive, persistent, curious, or short tempered. We are all friends and our grades do not affect that. We do tease each other a lot, but we never offend people by using curse words. We are all united and we know that we are the "Seventh Grade," not the room. For this reason, we don't simply decorate the room for certain occasions, but rather we decorate our own spirit. Anyway, we are always in with the best of 'em. We are the Seventh Grade.

"Eager beavers" generally describes the make up of this year's fourth graders. They are a husky, happy, energetic lot whose appetite for athletics, especially soccer, is matched only by their drive to sharpen their skills in the art of readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic. Not all of them excel in the classroom and other activities, but all of them possess a promise to make the best better. To be sure, they inspire and challenge a teacher to provide them with the guidance that they deserve.

Chronological Events

The first day of school

The SJC tennis team started off the Kanto Plains Tennis League by playing the first game against the Zama team. Unfortunately we lost by a score of two to three.

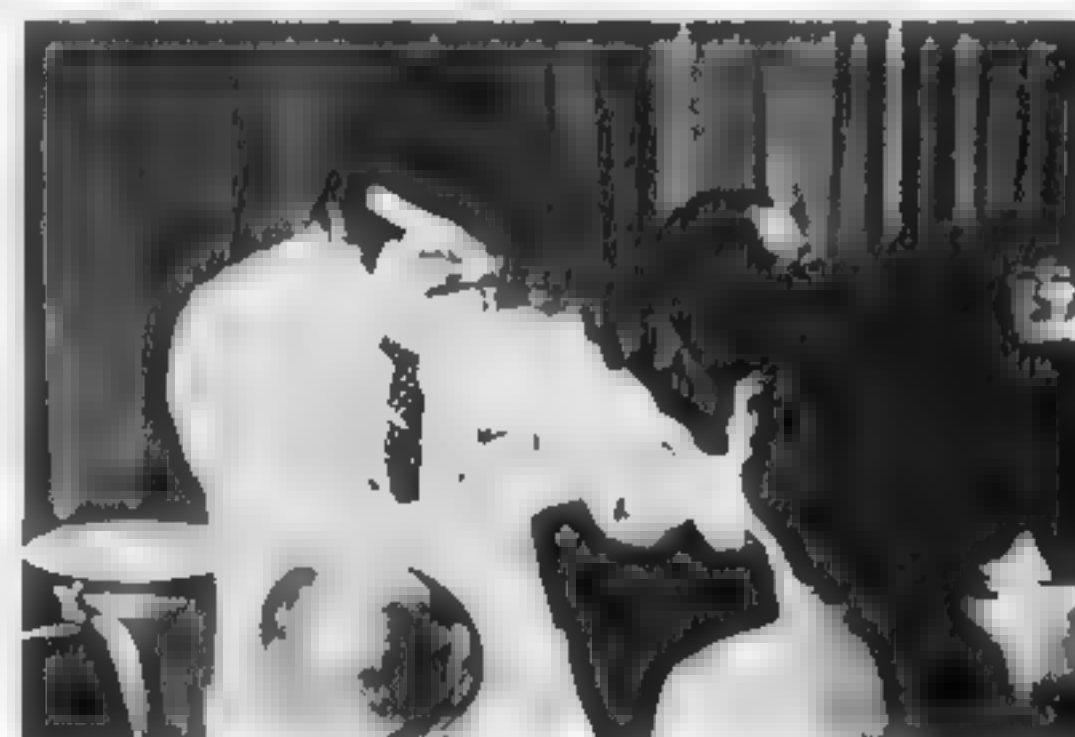

While the tennis team was busy playing, the Student Council was hard at work with the Workshop in which students from SJC, St. Maur, and YIS discussed what could be done during the new school year.

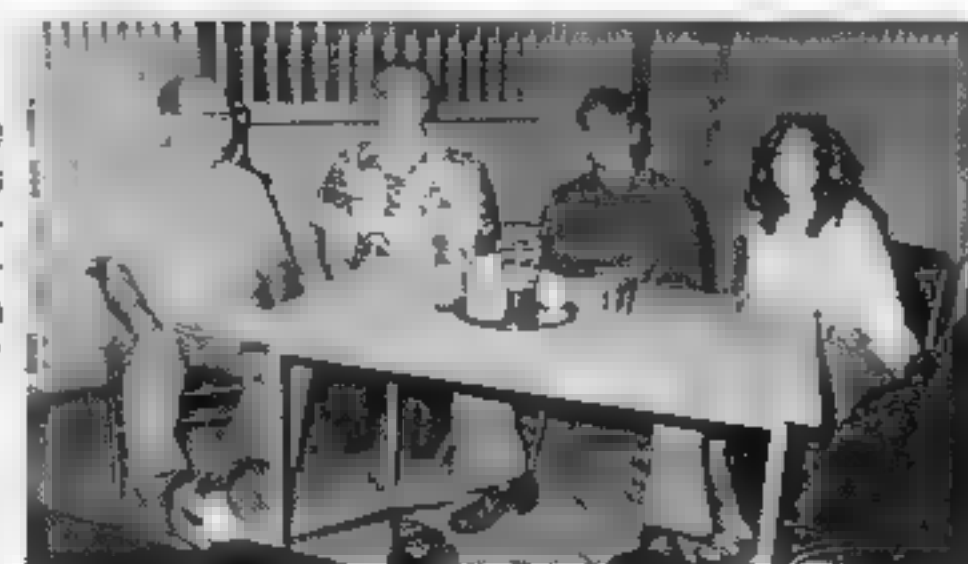

The first school dance "Funk'n ZAPF Style" was put on by the Social Committee. There was no profit made, but there was a large turnout and everybody thought that it was great.

Opening mass: the entire school went over to Sacred Heart Church. The Grade School Choir and the Sodality offered musical selections and with Fr. Mueller taking care of everything else, it was a success.

A whole team of doctors and nurses came to the school for the annual physical examination of the student body.

Chronological Events

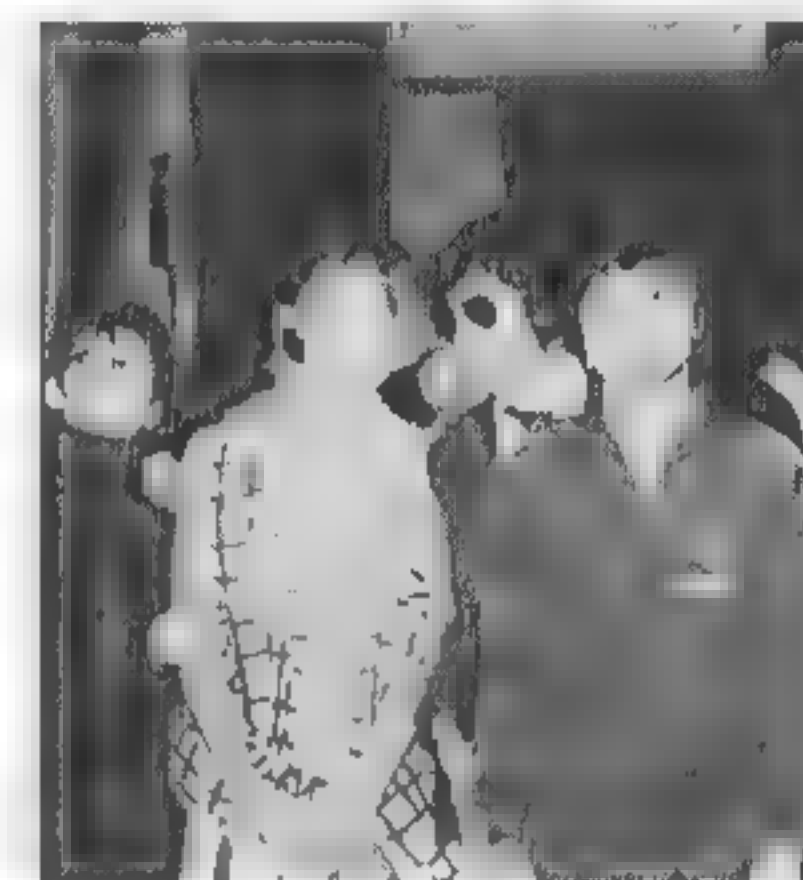

The Tennis team wound up the season in second place by defeating Yo-Hi (5-0), ASIJ (3-2), CAJ (3-2), and Yokota (3-2). Unfortunately, the team lost to St. Mary (1-4). The team really gave a good showing for our school. The Tennis Team went to Yokota for the Yokota Invitational Tennis Tournament. Fuyumi Oida and Shigeru Ohji made it to the quarter finals. Alan Hodo and Kenneth also played well and won all consolation matches that they played. In the Men's Singles, Mitsuyuki Tominaga beat the defending champion of St. Mary, 2-0. Overall, the team came in third place.

The Interact Club held their first project-International Understanding, inviting students from several other schools.

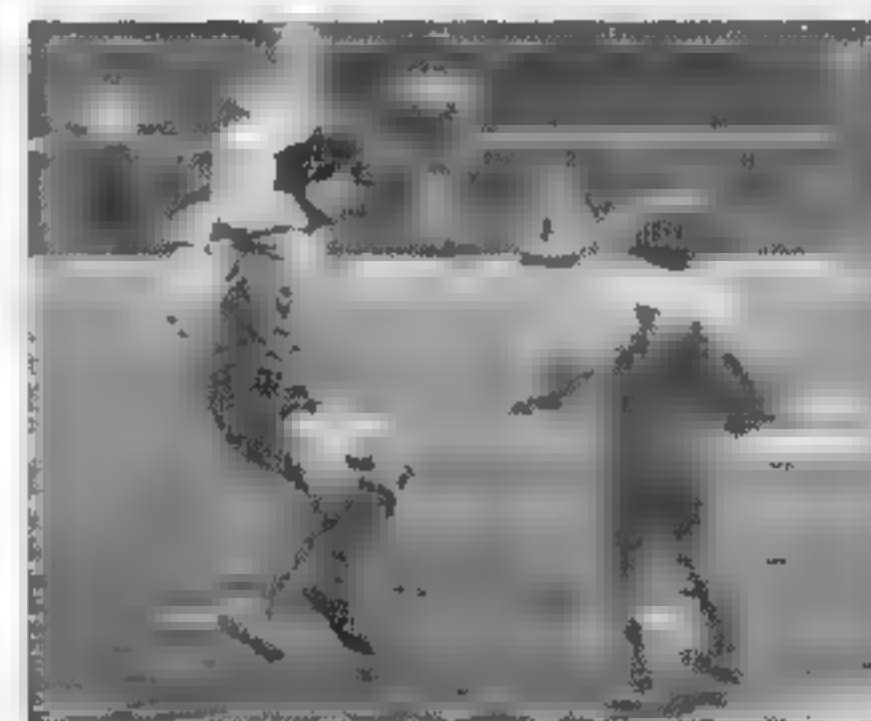

The Soccer Team played the Japanese School. They won the match by four goals to one. The Soccer Team played the YC & AC team this time. We beat them three to two.

The Sophomore play, "Urashima Taro," the famous Japanese tale, was a great success mainly because the Class of '82 took a whole week of their precious time with which to prepare it.

The Sodality movie, "Hooper," received a good turnout, but not as good as in previous years.

Meanwhile, the Soccer Team was playing down in Nagoya on an extremely muddy field. Understandably, most didn't feel much like playing, but the game went on as scheduled. NIS beat us two to nothing.

NOVEMBER

The Social/Welfare Bonfire went on as scheduled even though there was the threat of rain. The blaze was lit at 6 P.M. by Fire Chief Jean Dentici, and was extinguished at precisely 9 P.M. All three schools (SJC, St. Maur, and YIS) had booths up and running. Everything considered, it was quite successful.

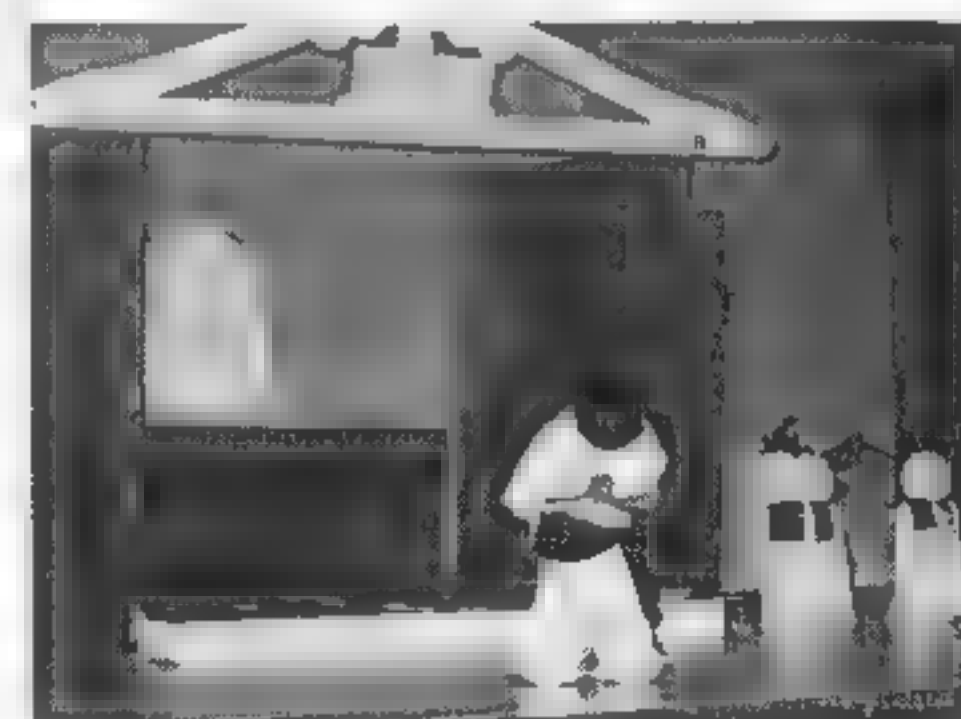

The second event held by the Welfare Committee went on. This year's music fair, "One Night Show," filled a good number of seats in the auditorium.

The Soccer Team took on the French School and slaughtered them with a score of five to nothing. For the second time in a row, the Soccer Team zipped their opponents. This time YIS was the victim. The final score: four to nothing. Unfortunately the Team was unable to defeat ASIJ in this soccer game. They beat us again, this time, three to one.

Grades one through eight put on their Christmas plays.

Although the Class of '80's play, "Daruma," this year was more serious and less interesting than in previous years, it was still in good taste and reflected the serious work put into it.

The Mother's Club Christmas dance was held at The Hotel Yokohama. The Juniors helped out, and Fr. Marcos won the motorcycle.

The Interact/Sodality Christmas Orphanage Party was held at our school.

2nd

The Kanto Plains Play Tournament was held at St. Maur. Our play, "Charlie," took 2nd place out of seven schools. This play contained a deep moral message, but most failed to realize this fact. Junior Kenji Ohta performed magnificently and was acclaimed best supporting actor. This was quite a feat given the number of men he had to compete against.

5th

The entire High School paid four hundred yen to see a very moving film about India and the work that Mother Teresa is doing there.

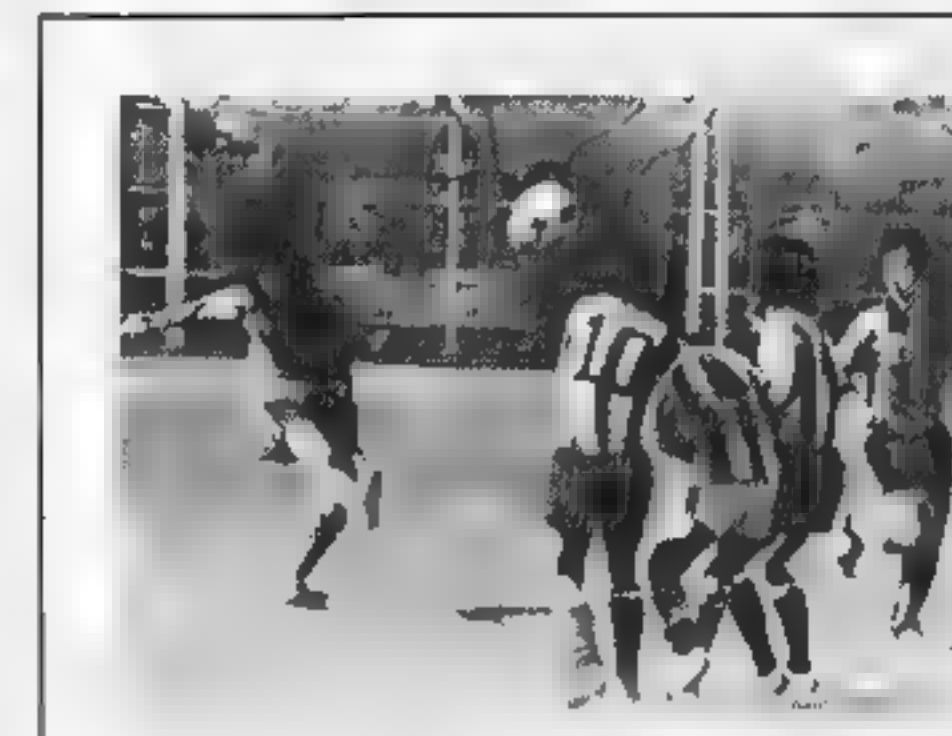

18th

The High School intramurals began.

21st

The second Social dance of this year, "Under The Influence of ZAPF," was a great success. As far as anyone can remember, this dance had the largest turnout ever.

12th-23rd

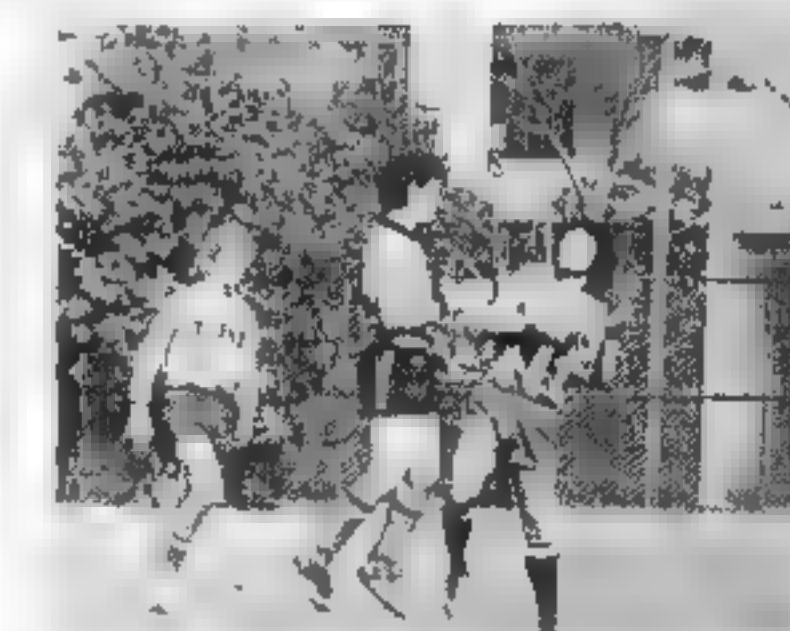

The Soccer Team again saw action - this time at St. Mary. When the battle was over, both teams were tied with a score of two. The Soccer Team stole the game from YIS for a second time. This time, though, it was only two to nothing.

15th

For the first time in a long while, the school gave the students a Winter Holiday for the purpose of having a school ski trip. Unfortunately, the students weren't really aware of the reason for the holiday, so few took advantage of the ski trip with Fr. Mueller. Those who did go, however, enjoyed themselves.

29th

The High School speech contest was held. Senior Naonori Tanaka took Poetry Interpretation; Senior Masahide Ogawa walked away with first in Impromptu; and Freshman Jiro Usami won in Original Oratory.

6th-7th

The IIT Soccer Tournament was held at YC & AC, but due to rain, it was held on our own extremely muddy field. When it was all over, ASIJ was champion. We came in 3rd place overall.

Chronological Events

5th-6th

After 12 years as Retreat Master, Fr. Mifsud left because of necessary work that has to be done in California. On these two days, he asked the students to visit him whenever they got the chance. Even with the sadness of his leaving fresh in our hearts, it was hard not to have a good time listening to his final retreat.

19th

The Junior production was held.

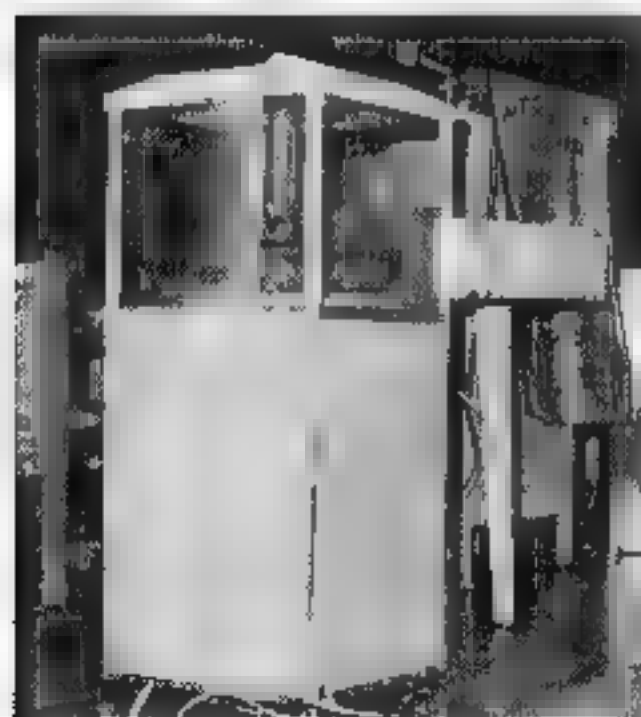

22nd

The Kanto Plains Speech Contest was held at CAJ. We didn't have many entries and we were capable of doing better than we did, but some of the more hopefuls got sick.

24th

Induction of new members to the National Honor Society took place.

29th-30th

Although rain threatened to ruin The Bingo Food Fair again this year, it cleared up for the two days, then rained once it was all over. This is the second year in a row this "miracle" has occurred. There was a mini-affle this year - the grand prize, a car. Tickets were a thousand yen apiece and the students didn't have to sell them. The Mother's Club helped out as usual.

7th

The 3rd Social dance, "Free as the Wind," was very successful. The dance posters were written in beautiful calligraphic Chinese.

26th

The second of the two series of intramurals organized by the Sports Committee ended. The Seniors swept every event except soccer which the Juniors won.

Chronological Events

12th - 13th

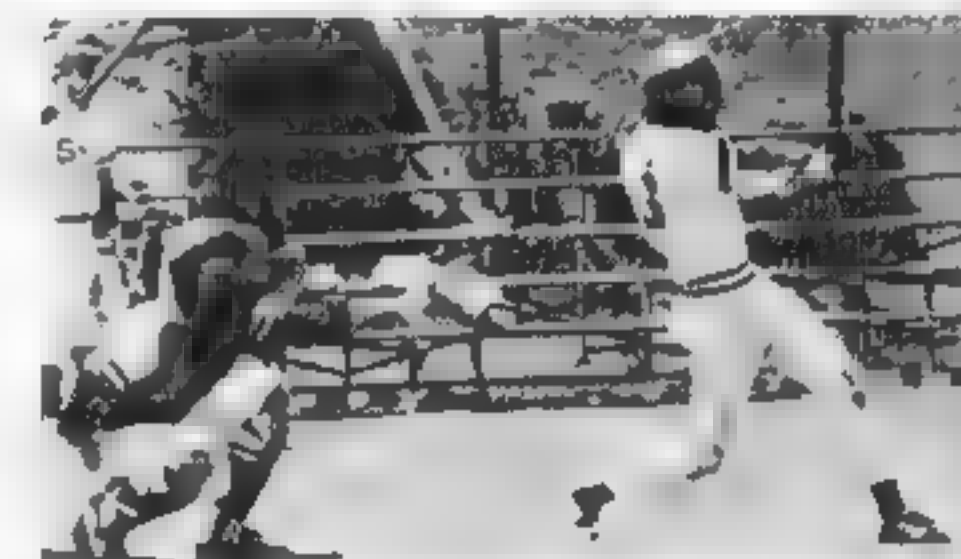

The second Welfare music fair, "We Are the One," was postponed to this date. The music was terrific, especially Senior Ryosei Kaneko on the sax, but rain kept prospective ticket buyers away.

12th - 5/17th

The baseball season began in mid-April with a double-header against A.S.I.J.

The baseball team played against C.A.J., Zama, Yo-Hi, Yokota, and St. Mary. There were quite a few records achieved this year: Andrew Fernandes pitched a perfect game against Zama, and Thomas Pang hit two consecutive homeruns against C.A.J. Additionally, Thomas promised to become the leading homerun batter this season. For further information consult Mr. Okuhara, the coach-moderator.

SJC student Field Day. The entire student body participated in one way or another. The Seniors and Juniors were in charge of setup, the Sophomores and Freshmen, cleanup. The rest of the students actually participated in the various events.

30th

The Senior/Junior prom was held at The Hotel Yokohama. It started at seven o'clock and lasted all night.

5th

A Baccalaureate mass was held for the Seniors, and afterwards, everybody went to the YC & AC for the Senior Banquet. When the meal was over, they received their activity awards.

7th

The 8th grade graduation ceremony went smoothly and the graduates were joyous as they partook of the food prepared for them in the cafeteria.

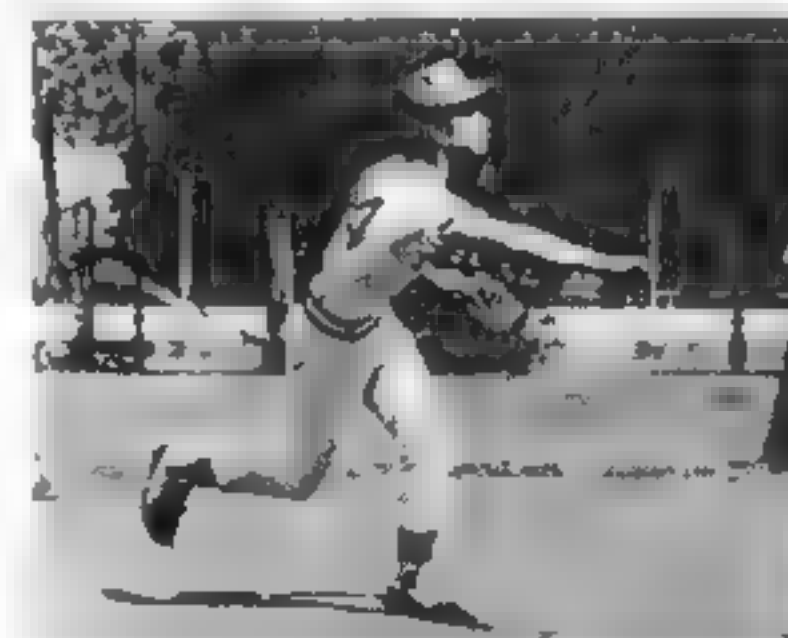

8th

The Senior graduation was held with Fr. Kelso as the Seniors' special guest. Loaded with awards, flowers, and diplomas, the Graduates set off for new horizons.

1st - 2nd

The three act play "Pools Paradise" was performed by the SJC Drama Club under the direction of Mr. Stavrinaky. Mika Ishida, Marie Enderle, and Catherine Hubert of St. Maur, helped out greatly in this endeavor. Needless to say, the play was quite a success.

A Looking at the 12 years Gone By...

The World

When Viet Cong troops overran Saigon, thousands of South Vietnamese fled the country any way they could. U.S. President Gerald Ford declared the Vietnam war over. OPEC increased their oil prices again.

The Campus

The annual SJC open house was held. The chapel was repainted and refurbished. Also, the High School classrooms were completely remodeled to help students to feel more comfortable, and therefore to learn better.

The Students

This was the last year that the Bowling team was a part of the extracurricular activities. Dr. Sav's son, Furrukh, was born and the father wonders if his son should receive the education that SJC provides. The Class of '77 formed the table-tennis team.

Trivia

The Emperor and Empress of Japan visited the United States. Expo '75 was held in Okinawa, but it was not as successful as Expo '70 held in Osaka. The movie "Jaws" broke the record for most money made and kept people away from beaches for months. Five academy awards went to "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

The Year of the...

Mao Tse Tung died. Chinese Deputy Prime Minister, Deng Xiaoping (Teng Hsiao-ping) was disposed and Hua Guofeng (Hua Kuo-feng) was named Prime Minister. An earthquake in Guatemala killed over 20,000 people. The Golden Jubilee of the reign of the Emperor was celebrated in Japan.

The 75th anniversary of the school was celebrated by holding the Diamond Jubilee. The shed and drinking fountain were destroyed to make room for the new library. Bro. Santos passed away in the midst of his efforts to give the school the best library possible. He succeeded.

The biggest accomplishment this year was the soccer victory against Tateno High School. The Saints defeated Tateno for the first time in ten years. The talent show "Natural Syncopation" was held in April.

The movie "Rocky" was a box-office hit. Skateboarding made a small comeback with specialized "plexy-boards" and urathane wheels. Decathlon winner Bruce Jenner, skater Dorothy Hamill, and gymnast Nadia Comaneci kept the Olympic crowds excited with their dramatic performances. British mystery novelist, Agatha Christie, died after having a very successful writing career.

The Congo's President, Marien Ngoubi, was assassinated at his official residence in Brazzaville. Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin's wife was fined some $27,000 for her role in maintaining U.S. bank accounts in violation of Israel's currency regulations.

This was the first year a Bingo/Food fair was held at our school. Bro. McKee came to Japan and became the new principal. The library was completely finished and for use in September and was dedicated to Bro. Santos.

The talent show this year was so vulgar that all future talent shows were forbidden. The Senior play "Eleanor" broke the Student Council budget. The most popular President in a long time, Gregory Branch, came into power with his "Spirit of Togetherness". The SJC basketball team was champion of the Yokohama tournament.

To the regret of the entire world, Elvis Presley, King of Rock n'Roll, the prices of his albums soared in a matter of hours, and "Elvis" memorabilia became a craze. Electronic pong games were made available for home use. "Son of Sam", the women-killing specialist, was captured in New York.

The Israeli army took control of almost all of Lebanon south of the Litani River. U.S. President Jimmy Carter announced his decision to defer production of the controversial neutron warhead. After years of conflict and tension between the Japanese government and local farmers, the New Tokyo International Airport in Chiba prefecture was opened for use.

The W.A.S.C. committee came to evaluate the school - we passed of course. Also, the school uniform changed from a drab grey to an exhilarating blue.

This was the first year that the SJC Tennis team was ever invited to the Yokota Invitational Tournament. Awareness and Communication added to Branch's Togetherness to create ACT.

"Saturday Night Fever" was transmitted to the younger generation and structured disco dancing was born. Pope John Paul I, the successor of Pope Paul VI, passed away after 34 days of pontificate. The new election resulted, Pope John Paul II to be the successor.

Margret Thatcher became Britain's first woman prime minister. The Shah of Iran was exiled when Imam Khomeini overthrew the Iranian government. A mob of militant Iranian students attacked and captured the U.S. embassy and took 50 people hostage. Russia invaded Afghanistan and was reportedly using biochemical warfare

The school prohibited students from driving cars or motorcycles to school. The last two French Brothers, Brothers Germain and Imhoff, both of whom witnessed the history of SJC, passed away.

The Tennis team participated in the Kanto Plains League. The best Chronicle ever was published and finally, the yearbook did not have a brown cover! Also, "ACT" became "TACT" by adding Tolerance to the list.

The U.N. declared the year as the International year of the Child. The Space Invaders video game was such a rage in Japan that the people spent over 750,000,000,000 yen playing it. "Apocalypse Now" won at the Cannes Film Festival. John Wayne, actor and American Symbol, died of cancer.

The U.S. government chose to boycott the 1980 Summer Olympics in Moscow in order to show its strong opposition to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. The hostage situation in Iran continued, and Imam Khomeini continued his frequent and ludicrous outbursts against the United States. In San Salvador, Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero was assassinated while giving communion during a mass dedicated to his mother who passed away three days previously.

The school prohibited all students from driving cars or motorcycles on all Yamate streets. A new computer system was purchased for the math department. The first mini-affle was held during the Bingo/Food fair. The grand prize was a car, and students didn't have to sell the tickets!!!

The Student Council revived the school badge in an attempt to make the students feel more united. This year was Fr. Mifsud's 12th and last year as retreat master at SJC. President Masahide Ogawa stopped playing scrabble with Student Council themes by not having one.

Paul McCartney was arrested in Japan for illegally possessing marijuana. Jessie Owens, sportsman, statesmen, and winner of four gold medals at the Berlin Olympics in 1936, died. "Kramer versus Kramer" took five Oscars. Kurosawa released "Shadow Warrior."

THE EDITING STAFF of FORWARD

1980 1980

This 1980 issue was printed by International Division of Dai Nippon Printing Company in Tokyo. Paper stock of the book is 93.5kg New Age. The cover is New Glory No. 266. The body copy was set in Press Roman and Theme Bold. The book prides itself with student work, from the editing to photography, and was compiled with a staff of 10 students. The staff functions under the spirit of Forward with Faith and Fortitude. This book was produced not for the purpose of glory, but because there was a dream—a dream to make something of intrinsic value and worth, which would reflect the realization of the experience and share with you a little of our St. Joseph College. It is for this that the Forward '80 staff members strove to make this book perfect; it is for this that this group of young men put in countless hours of agonizing work; it is for this that Forward '80 is!

Among the great leaders of all times, there lies a Hero, a great man who has long been over-looked and neglected in the annals of history. He has the back of a J.F.K., the stoic determination of a Gandhi, and the hairstyle of an Einstein (too bad his head is that of a pumpkin). He is Kenneth, the Editor-in-Chief, who rose out from the turmoil and who vanquished his tormentors, constantly commanding them to death (shi-ne-yo). And it was he who worked the latest, the hardest, and consequently got all the blame. (Plaudits Please!)

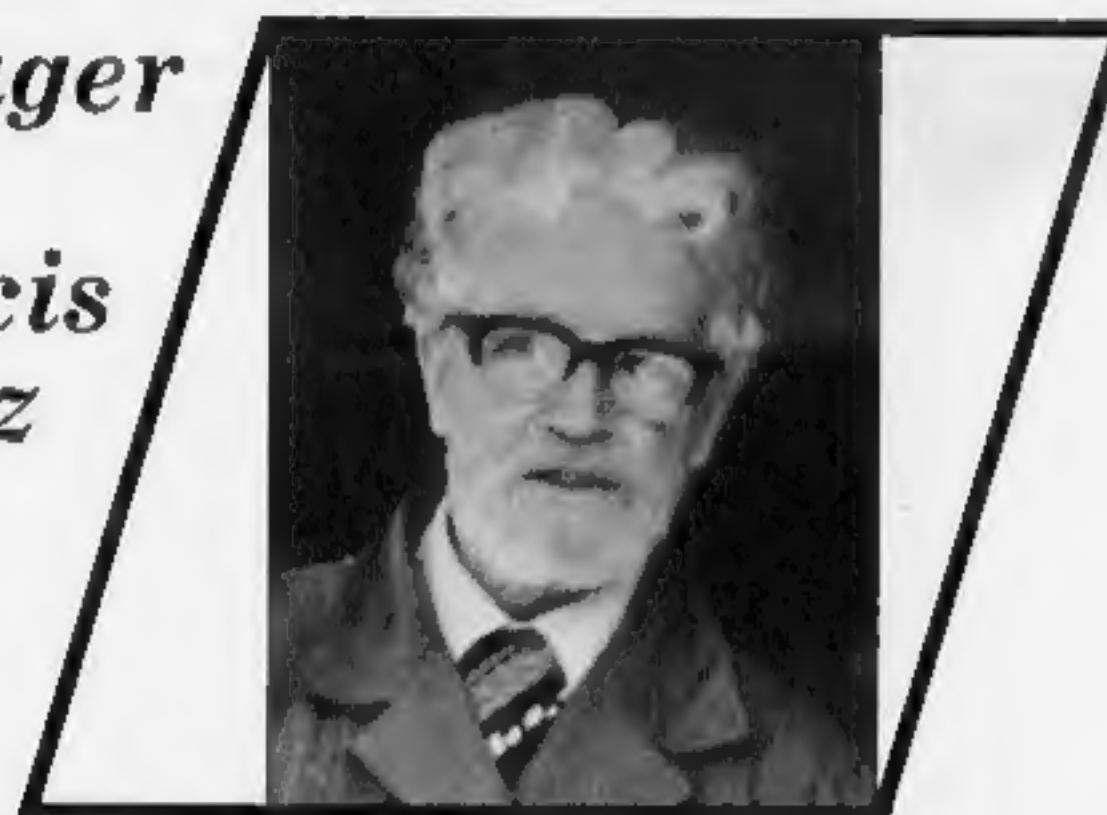

Editor-in-Chief

Our Photo Editor was a valuable man of well-done appearance and half-cooked ideas. His lack of certain photographic equipment, and his conceptual conflicts with the Editor, made Fuyumi a model bureaucrat with radicalism. This man was the most practical person in the sense that he was efficient in both designing and picking out other members' errors from their work. Time did not exist for him when he was indulging in his sphere of creativity and, as a matter of fact, many of his creations have melted into the pages. Loyally, he stayed into the night, and early into the morning, working on this book (at least that is what he told his parents).

Manager
Bro.
Francis
Grisez

Ad Layout Chief

The Ad layout chief, Thomas, was a practical man who churned out all of the ad designs and layouts. Being the most elderly in the group (without mentioning his tender age of 20), he was often criticized for his unproductive observations and vociferous philosophy. Yet his ambition to amuse younger people by telling out-of-date jokes manifested his hope to put himself back into the world of youth. Still, one thing remained a mystery from his daily routine of involving-in-many-activities and sleeping-in-classes, people, after all, could not discover his personal night life.

Business Manager

Crud!! Huh, Huh, Huh This temperamental person of high moral character, of determined drive, and of great singing talent (crud!), hated idleness and lethargy the most. If there was no work, he wouldn't come. He would rather "work" someplace else, with someone else. Stephen was the Business Manager, concurrently doing a lot of other "crud", as well, and good naturedly materializing certain half-crazed ideas of his superiors, "Crud".

Journalist

This unpredictable journal man, Masahide, often was at odds with the staff due to his belief that a punch a day keeps impeachment away. Among his habits were to stick scissors into Bro. Grisez's favorite tables; the, of course, he would come in with a beaming Willie Briggs smile, baptizing all his evils. All in all, when the editor came up with then, pictures, he came up with the lines.

Layout staff

Alan who was forced by his guilty and compassionate conscience to help the "pumpkin Editor", was doomed. As a man of freedom, his heart was heavy, between his distaste for having to do "junk" and his obligations; however, the amount of work produced was just as heavy. He was a calm, hardworking person who did much to enhance a positive and productive atmosphere.

Layout staff

Another layouter was the esteemed Charlie. Always seeming blissfully innocent, and unaware of Forward work, he would come in and go out without shame. He would frustrate the Editor by being so innocent, that no fight could result (although once they both got a little baptized). It was speculated, with much controversy, that he did, after all, do some work.

Philosopher

Here is today's most modern philosopher, Kenji, who supported the staffs' indecisiveness by stressing his profound theories. Yet when it came to the graphic designs, the staff paid no attention to them. His art was that of a too-high-quality that none of the members could encircle with nor put into actual use. He many times confused the staff more than aiding them, and pulled their legs more than he pushed their spirits, but began mumbling, "Urr, Urr, ... Urr,," he had a brilliant and magnificent idea in his mind, if not in his mouth. Too bad he walked into the Forward room that day to borrow a cutter, the staff grabbed him by the neck.

Layout staff

This slinky, inconspicuous, and downright sly guy, when Naonori was found, often wore a serious, earnest visage (it is not the job of this writer to delve into the real workings). It was a bizarre experience to have his work roasted, and his character insulted by his bosses, while they did not notice that he was there. Doing odd jobs for the Forward, at least his good work made its impacts.

Assistant Photographer

The assistant photographer, Jun, helped the Editor and the Photo Chief by accompanying them on many botsu-taking excursions to weird locations in and around the campus. He also had to take the Medusa-like faces of the Editor and his crony, when it had to be done. He will also be remembered as a genius developing negatives, which often turned into works of modern art. Good Luck, Forward '82.

Because this is our final year as Saint Joseph College students, it has proven to be the most memorable and remunerating year for all of us. These words apply especially to the Seniors and to the Forward Staff of 1980.

During this final year, I myself and the rest of us have tasted the weight and bitterness of the word "RESPONSIBILITY." (This includes the whole process of making a book like ours.) But this process made us most aware of the fact that every person has a different personality and we had to learn to get along with each other despite these differences. This was a kind of lesson that we all ought to have.

Each and every one of us has sacrificed his precious time working on this yearbook, especially Thomas, Fuyumi, and Steve. At times we stayed at school until Bro. McKee kindly reminded us that it was past our bedtime. Other than that, we had to take round trips to the Dai-Nippon Printing Company several times with the use of Thomas' van. We often kept Mr. Tsukamoto and Mr. Kumagai until two o'clock in the morning.

Each year, the Editor has the privilege of writing the final words on this very last page. To tell the truth, there is not much that I want to say except my deepest thanks to my staff members and to all those who helped me get through with the work. But, I have four words to say, "THANK GOD IT'S OVER!"

Kenneth Zee
Editor-in-Chief

SPECIAL THANKS TO...

- FUYUMI: for always being there when I needed him and constantly giving me extra pain in my pain in the back.
- STEVE: for Americanizing our oriental way of thinking.
- THOMAS: for providing some space in his super car "Homy". Let's keep to the speed limit and sleep well before you drive think about others' lives!
- ALAN: for always coming, but his GS 400E never arrived on time.
- KENJI: for providing us with a few magnificent pictures; also for helping us with some literary work, although at times, we could not comprehend his philosophical and psychological meanings.
- BRO. GRISEZ: for giving us countless advice and for remaining patient with our lack of integrity.
- MR. TSUKAMOTO: for converting our procrastinating spirit with your "JISSAI MONDAI" analysis.
- MR. KUMAGAI: for staying with us until 5 a.m. and occasionally treating us.
- FACULTY MEMBERS: for their cooperation when the Forward staff members were striving for the deadline.

And, I would like to thank all the others who made this book possible:
Jean Dentici, Jeff Kosaka, Peter Shuto, my parents, the Class of 1980, Fr. Gerber, and Bro. McKee.
